The first transfer of money under the PM-KISAN scheme is scheduled for Sunday. Priscilla Jerebar has reported from villages in Warangal, Telangana on how farmers have benefited from Rythu Bandhu, the income support scheme as seen the impression behind PM-KISAN.

The step-by-step guide on how to claim

*To claim the benefit, you need to have a Aadhaar card and a bank account.
*Open your Aadhaar Card and bank account online and link them.
*You can also link your Aadhaar card with a mobile number through the mAadhar app.

The government will transfer the money to your bank account once you have linked your Aadhaar card with your bank account.

Important: If you have not yet linked your Aadhaar card with your bank account, you can do so through the mAadhar app or website. The link will take you to a page where you can select the bank account you want to link your Aadhaar card with. Follow the instructions to complete the linking process.

---

Note: The information provided is based on the information available on the government's official website and is subject to change. It is always advisable to check the government's official website for the latest updates.

---

The government has launched the PM-KISAN scheme to provide income support to small and marginal farmers. The scheme promises to transfer a minimum of ₹2,000 per hectare per year to farmers. The first tranche of ₹1,000 was transferred on December 15, and the second tranche of ₹1,000 will be transferred on January 15, 2020.

Eligibility criteria:

- A farmer is eligible if he/she owns a landholding of up to 2 hectares.
- The landholding must be within the state limits.
- The farmer must be a beneficiary of the Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY) or the Rashtriya Sishya Yojana (RSY).

Steps to claim the benefit:

1. Link your Aadhaar card with your bank account.
2. Ensure that your Aadhaar card and bank account are verified.
3. Ensure that your Aadhaar address and bank address are updated.
4. The government will transfer the money to your bank account once you have linked your Aadhaar card with your bank account.

Important: If you have not yet linked your Aadhaar card with your bank account, you can do so through the mAadhar app or website.

---

Note: The information provided is based on the information available on the government's official website and is subject to change. It is always advisable to check the government's official website for the latest updates.